

What Did This Year's Delegates Say About International Electronics Forum 2009:

“It was very well done and very much worth the time to attend. You have managed to deliver a very upbeat message, underpinned by solid data, that are helpful to get our industry back into full swing.” - Sophia Business Angels

“Thank you . It was indeed one of the best conferences I have ever attended with a lot of interactive sessions . The B2B was a very good initiative, everyone meet each other before the forum had even started. I place on record my heartfelt thanks to Malcolm and his entire team...” - Silicon Ventures

“It is me who ought to thank you and congratulate you. Great Forum in spite of adverse market conditions” STMicroelectronics

“ It was very informative for us and we made some good contacts” – Evatronix

“ Speed Networking is very good, a rapid way to meet many people in a short period of time” – Sophia Business Angels

“ The forum was all very interesting, some thing for everyone” – Emerald Group Publishing

“I enjoyed attending the IEF, it was an excellent learning opportunity for me” – LB Consulting

You did a great job!” Markt&Technik, Wochenzeitung für Elektronik

“It was brilliantly organised and was, I think, the happiest IEF ever – people were really enjoying themselves - I think pleased to be getting together after such an awful time”. Electronics Weekly

“What great company the Future Horizons team were. Forum content was usual high standard” – ATEEDA Ltd

“ Speed Networking was a great start to the forum! Perfect for small companies to establish a network” Evatronix

“The IEF 2009 turned out to be as good a conference as Rahul Sud had told me so I'm glad I decided to go. I learned a lot and met many interesting people from the semiconductor industry. I'll be back!” Incentia Partners

“Well done for your nice organisation last week! From the participants' viewpoint it all seemed very smooth and well oiled. The speed networking was a lot of fun”. Kensington Consulting

“Many thanks to you and the Future Horizon team for the excellent activity this year. In all I have probably developed 5-6 different opportunities for business continuation from this conference in addition to meeting a number of new people. So this was good!” Proveho Advisory
